(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

Applicant petitions the Patent and Trademark Office for a revival of the above referenced patent application for the following reasons. Applicant had retained a patent attorney, George A. Bode, to prepare and file a patent application on his behalf. On March 12, 2001, applicants' attorney, George Bode, generated a letter indicating that the patent application was filed and assigned serial number 09/783,906. At that time, Mr. Bode was made attorney of record. Patent Office correspondence was to be directed to Mr. Bode's attention. Applicant understood from discussions with Mr. Bode that it would be some time, even years before the Patent and Trademark Office would review the application. Applicant attempted to contact Mr. Bode from time to time (about every 6 months) in order to learn the status of his application. Each time he was told that there was no action issued by the Patent Office. The applicant was told by Mr. Bode that as soon as Mr. Bode knew something he would let the applicant know. Each time the applicant was told that the timing was normal and that the Patent Office takes a long time to review each application.

Eventually, the applicant became frustrated and on his own contacted the Patent Office website at www.uspto.gov, entered his pending number and was told that there was no information. He then informed Mr. Bode that he had checked the Patent Office website and was told that there was no information about his patent application. To this, Mr. Bode responded that the Patent and Trademark Office website would show the status of the application once it had been acted upon. Eventually, the applicant became so frustrated that he asked Mr. Bode to give him his file. The applicant called Mr. Bode on a number of occasions to secure his file but was unsuccessful in obtaining it. In February of 2005, applicant confronted Mr. Bode at his office in an attempt to obtain his file. Applicant was unable to receive his file in person on February 21, 2005 when he confronted Mr. Bode.

It was not until after this meeting on February 21, 2005 that applicant called the Patent Office about his case. He spoke with Steven Cronin who told him that Mr. Bode had been suspended from practice before the Patent Office (also, see attachment A hereto). It was applicants understanding that this suspension was due in part for failure to communicate with clients that resulted in abandonment of their applications. Applicant recalls Mr. Cronin telling him that the applicant's application number 09/783,906 was abandoned.

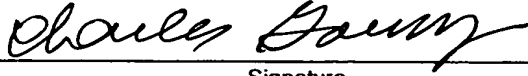

On February 28, 2005, applicant made an appointment with another patent attorney, Charles Garvey of Metairie, Louisiana. Mr. Garvey was given a Power of Attorney by applicant.

(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

In March of 2005, Mr. Garvey obtained a copy of the file history of the patent application. From this copy of the file history, Mr. Garvey confirmed that the application was abandoned for failure to respond to a Notice to File Corrected Application Papers that was mailed by the Patent Office to Mr. Bode on March 16, 2001. Applicant also learned from the file history copy obtained by Mr. Garvey that a Notice of Abandonment was mailed to Mr. Bode on January 3, 2003. Applicant was never told by Mr. Bode or anyone else to file the Notice to File Corrected Application Papers nor given a copy of this communication that was issued by the Patent and Trademark Office on March 16, 2001.

Applicant was never told by Mr. Bode his application had been abandoned. Applicant confirmed that his application was abandoned in March of 2005 when he received a copy of the file history provided by Mr. Garvey.

Because applicant was unaware of the Notice to File Corrected Application Papers mailed March 16, 2001, applicant could not and did not respond timely. Therefore, there has been an unavoidable delay in responding.

Proceeding No. D02-14

OFFICE OF PETITIONS

FINAL DECISION UNDER 37 C.F.R. §
10.156

The Hon. Susan Biro ("ALF") issued an Initial Decision ("ID") finding that Respondent backdated three certificates of mailing; failed to communicate with clients, resulting in eight patent and trademark applications going abandoned; and failed to respond to Requirements for Information (RFIs) issued by the Office of Enrollment and Discipline (OED). Specifically, the ID found that by backdating certificates of mailing Respondent violated the following rules: USPTO Disciplinary Rule ("Rule") 10.23(b), by engaging in conduct involving misrepresentation; Rule 10.23(b)(6), by engaging in conduct that adversely reflects upon his fitness to practice; and Rule 10.23(c)(9), by knowingly misusing certificates of mailing. The ID found that through various failings involving his representation of several clients, Respondent violated the following rules: Rule 10.23(c)(8), by failing to inform clients of correspondence; Rule 10.77(c), by neglecting legal matters entrusted to him; and Rule 10.84(a)(2), by failing to carry out contracts for employment. Finally, the ID found that by failing to respond to RFIs, Respondent violated the following rules: Rule 10.23(b)(5), by engaging in conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice, Rule 10.23(b)(6), by engaging in conduct adversely affecting his fitness to practice, and Rule 10.23(c)(16), by willfully refusing to reveal or report knowledge or evidence to OED. The ID recommended that Respondent be suspended from practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") for seven years, with the final four years of the suspension to be stayed.

Respondent appealed the ID's findings. The OED Director responded to the appeal and cross-appealed, arguing that Respondent's conduct required his exclusion from practice before the USPTO. Respondent failed to respond to the OED Director's cross appeal.

For the reasons discussed herein, all findings set forth in the ID are adopted, as is the recommended penalty.

Direct Appeal

Respondent's appeal contains three substantive paragraphs. The first objects to the ID's findings of facts and conclusions of law because "the [ALJ] ignored the testimony of the Respondent and the obvious contradictory and biased testimony of the witnesses against Respondent." The second paragraph objects to the recommended sanction on precisely the same grounds. The third paragraph asserts the ALJ unfairly favored the Government and ignored the bias of its witnesses because the ALJ "ignored the testimony that the Director has long been investigating and harassing the Respondent and seeking to impair the Respondent's ability to practice before the Office."

The hearing in this matter elicited conflicting testimony concerning a number of facts material to the resolution of the charges against Respondent. The well-reasoned ID resolved these conflicts through explicit analysis of various indicia of reliability, including the demeanor of testifying witnesses. In many instances, the ALJ found Respondent's testimony less credible than that of the witnesses against him. The ALJ's credibility determinations, based upon first hand observation of the witnesses' demeanor, and supported by careful analysis of the surrounding circumstances, are entitled to deference. Haebe v. Dep't of Justice, 288 F.3d 1288, 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2002); Bradley v. Secretary of Health and Human Svcs., 991 F.2d 1570, 1575 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Respondent's brief, entirely devoid of any specific allegation of error, provides no basis to question them.

Similarly, Respondent does not refer to specific testimony that would establish that the OED Director's investigation was unduly prolonged or harassing, and no such testimony is apparent in the record. The OED Director, of course, did investigate Respondent, and, as Complainant in this matter, did seek to exclude him from practice before the Office. These facts, however, establish that the OED Director did his job, not that there is any error in the ID.

Cross Appeal

The AU indicated that if she had been writing on a clean slate she would have been "inclined to find the appropriate sanction in this case to be exclusion." However, after considering two previous Commissioner's Decisions addressing conduct similar to that involved here, the ID recommended a seven-year suspension with the final four years stayed. Specifically, the ID examined In re Klein, 6 USPQ 2d 1547 (1988), in which a practitioner found to have backdated certificates of mailing, neglected client matters, and provided misleading answers to OED RFIs was suspended for seven years, of which five were stayed, and Small v. Wiffenbach, 10 USPQ 2d 1898 (1989), in which a practitioner found to have engaged in similar conduct was suspended for five years.

The OED Director's Cross Appeal does not challenge the ID's conformance of the recommended penalty to those previously imposed by the USPTO in similar cases, but argues that the ID's comparison of the instant facts to those of the previous decisions was flawed. The ID noted that the Small decision had explained imposition of a longer effective suspension than that imposed in Klein because the practitioner in Small had involved his secretary in his backdating of mailing certificates and blamed her for them, had not been candid with the USPTO when asked about the backdating, had neglected entrusted legal matters, and had not shown contrition or remorse. The ID found that the Respondent here had not affirmatively made incorrect statements to OED about the backdating and had not attempted to place blame for it on anyone else. It therefore concluded that Respondent's conduct was not as serious as the conduct in Small, and imposed a shorter initially effective suspension.

The OED Director argues that the ID erred in finding that Respondent's conduct was less serious than that in Small. The OED Director asserts that, even though Respondent did not make false responses to the RFIs, the ID should have weighted his failure to respond more heavily in assessing the penalty. The ID was not unreasonable in treating Respondent's failure to respond to the RFIs as being less serious than making deliberate misstatements to OED.

The OED Director also alleges that Respondent lied to an OED investigator when he told the investigator that he would fax his response the RFIs and then did not do so. The ID actually found that, in a telephone conversation with the investigator, Respondent said that he did not have the response in front of him, but would ask his secretary to forward him a copy, which he would then forward to OED. ID at 19. The ID found that OED never received the response. It is entirely possible that Respondent told the investigator that he would forward the response when he in fact had no intention of doing so. It is also possible, however, that, at the time he made the statement, Respondent intended to fax his response to OED, but that for some reason he ultimately failed to do so. The ID did not treat this episode as involving a misrepresentation to OED, and the record does not provide grounds to disturb this treatment.

The OED Director also asserts there is a strong likelihood that Respondent backdated filings in this case. While the ID refers to apparent discrepancies involving the dates on the certificates of service for several documents Respondent filed in this case, the ID does not conclude that the documents were in fact backdated. Further, the issue was not charged or litigated, and the record has not been developed as to the circumstances surrounding the filings. This is unlike the situation in Small, where misrepresentation to OED was charged and proven, and where a portion of the penalty was imposed directly on the basis of that violation. The ID did not err in distinguishing Small on this basis.

Finally, the OED Director argues that the ID found that Respondent misappropriated client funds and should have imposed more stringent discipline on the basis of this finding. The ID found that Respondent collected and held funds from one client to cover a $605 USPTO issue fee; did not remit the fee to the USPTO, thus permitting the application to go abandoned; and failed to return the fee to the client. The ID noted, however, that it did not treat the misappropriation as a separate charge and that the AU did not see it as a deliberate usurpation of client funds. ID at 38, note 51.

Instead, the ID treated it as "part and parcel of Respondent's general neglect of client matters." Id.

If Respondent had been charged with misappropriation of client funds and these charges had been sustained, a more severe penalty might well have been warranted. Given the posture of the case, however, the ID appropriately treated Respondent's failure to return the issue fee as part of his pattern of neglect. Viewed in this light, the apparent misappropriation does not fundamentally change the nature of the neglect. The ID expressly declined to find that Respondent had intentionally converted the funds. The amount at issue, although significant, is only of a fraction of the damage caused by Respondent's neglect.¹ Thus, Respondent's failure to return the issue fee does not itself warrant a more severe penalty under the neglect charges.

ORDER

Upon consideration of the entire record, and pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 10.130(a), it is ORDERED that thirty (30) days from the date this order is entered, George A. Bode, whose USPTO Registration Number is 30,028, shall be suspended from practice before the USPTO for seven years, with the final four years of the suspension stayed, and that Respondent Bode be placed on probation for the those four years. The terms of the probation are:

- (i) Respondent shall comply with all Disciplinary Rules applicable to patent attorneys practicing before the USPTO; and

¹ The ID found that the value of the abandoned patents and trademarks, had they been issued, was irrelevant. However, the $605 issue fee is only a fraction of the total legal and USPTO fees paid but rendered futile as a result of Respondent's neglect.

- (ii) No document in any patent or trademark application can be filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office by or on behalf of Respondent which (a) uses a certificate of mailing under 37 C.F.R. § 1.8 and (b) indicates that the document was prepared by, worked on, or signed by or on behalf of, Respondent.

The Respondent's attention is directed to 37 C.F.R. § 10.158 regarding responsibilities in the case of suspension or exclusion, and 37 C.F.R. § 10.160 concerning petitions for reinstatement.

It is further ORDERED that this Final Decision in this proceeding be published.

RECONSIDERATION AND APPEAL RIGHTS

Any request for reconsideration of this decision must be filed within twenty (20) days from the date of entry of this decision. 37 C.F.R. § 10.156(c). Any request for reconsideration mailed to the PTO must be addressed to:

James A. Toupin
General Counsel
United States Patent and Trademark Office
PO Box 1450
Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450

A copy of the request must also be served on the attorney for the Director of Enrollment and Discipline:

Sydney Johnson
Associate Solicitor
U.S. Patent and Trademark Office
Post Office Box 16116
Arlington, Virginia 22215

Any request hand-delivered to the USPTO must be hand-delivered to the Office of the General Counsel, in which case the service copy for the attorney for the Director shall be hand-delivered to the Office of Enrollment and Discipline.

If a request for reconsideration is not filed, and Respondent desires further review, Respondent is notified that he is entitled to seek judicial review on the record in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia under 35 U.S.C. § 32 and LCvR 83.7 of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of this decision.
